Minneapolis Shops Closed;
Contracts Expire.

Controversy Over Short-Hour
Week Demands.

California Miners' Wages Due for Readjustment Soon.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 1.—Members of the typographical union, variously estimated from 100 to 1,000, employed in about eighty job printing establishments, were on strike here today. Contracts between unions and employing printers expired today.

Members of the employing printers declared the strike a development of the forty-four-hour week controversy.

ELGIN (Ill.) June 1.—No newspapers were published in Elgin today, printers employed by the city's two publishing companies, walked out demanding increased wages and shorter hours.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Photographers of the city's newspapers were tied up today by a strike of engravers for an increase of $4 a week.

STRIKE THREATENED.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SEATTLE, June 1.—Union railway employees in Seattle and west of the Missouri River will quit work rather than accept a cut in wages. W. W. Woodgett, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for the western line of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, advised today. The sentiment of the men had already been fairly well determined before the decision of the Railway Labor Board in Chicago was made public last night, he said.

ident's call, it was assumed that during the half hour conference there also was some mention of the road proposal that the government discharge at once its debt to these growers out of Federal control. This proposal was renewed before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee today by Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania lines, who argued such action would be no more than keeping the word of the government given when the roads were taken over.

The suggestion is known to have received careful consideration by the President and his advisers, and was the subject of a conference yesterday.

In his visit today, Mr. Harding technically was dealing with a part of the government outside the executive branch, and he assured the commissioners he had come simply in the interest of co-operation and general welfare. Since he had the official right to communicate with Congress regarding rates, he felt he might enjoy the same privilege in regard to the commission set up as the agent of Congress in the making of rates.

IN DUTY BOUND.

Mr. Rea repeated his statement yesterday that the government was in duty bound to consider the rates to their owners in as good condition as when they were taken over, and declared that the roads had power to carry out the roads' rehabilitation proposal and thus put railway finances once more on a sound foundation.

He summed up the rehabilitation plan in this statement:

"My first suggestion is that the release of the amounts due to the railroad for Federal control, but now held by the Railroad Administration as offsets to capital expenditures made during Federal control. To fund all of these capital expenditures would, I estimate, release and pay several hundred millions of current cash, due by the government, into the hands of the railroad as working capital, and also to purchase materials and supplies and meet other obligations. The present railroad revenues are not adequate to meet these necessities."

SUGGEST DELAY.

"My second suggestion is that a delay of three and a half years or more in settling under-maintenance questions, for both the Federal control and guarantee periods, be eliminated by prompt decision. It would, in effect, redeem the promise of the President, the Federal Control Act and the Transportation Act to return the roads in as good condition as when they were taken over as a war measure, or else pay the cost of physical repatriation necessary to put them in that condition. This means that there would be made available several hundred million dollars that the railroad believes are justly due them for under-maintenance and to meet the up-keep and maintenance deficit in the guaranty period."

The combined results of prompt payment of these suggestions, would mean the immediate resuscitation of railroad credit."

More than the 3 R's

Would you brush your teeth if there had never been advertising of dentifrice or tooth-brushes?

Of course you would.

Still there are those who need "education" in the use of dentifrice for teeth, soaps for soaps, concrete for roads, tractors for farms, and so on and so on, a list as long as your arm.

Who is to educate the public?—the schools leave off somewhere between the ages of fourteen and twenty-two—the newspapers when anything ceases to be a nine days' wonder.

"Line upon line, precept upon precept"—that's education and that's advertising.

Over and over and over again until people learn to brush their teeth.

Oh no they don't! You're mistaken. The best available statistics indicate that only about 25% of the people in America brush their teeth. Advertising increases the needs of the individual and the best advertising multiplies the number of consumers.

For example, the magnesia makers show more people how to conserve coal, and another association teaches new uses for cement.

June 1.—Upon motion of the attorneys for vs. John D. Rockefeller was postponed today to next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

John D. Rockefeller, senior member of the Standard Oil Company, who had been expected to conduct cross examination of Dr. Sullivan, was in court and had been instructed to come to the courtroom.

Mr. Sullivan then made an objection to the number of stenographers present, there being about 100 of them. Mr. Rockefeller then became public accused designed to help Mrs. Sullivan.

"I'd like to know," Col. Rand reported to have said, "how it is that fifteen minutes after a witness testifies his evidence is public property."

"Now that the matter is up," replied Attorney Abel I. Smith, "I

Attorneys for Mrs. Sullivan desired after the hearing that the case be continued for the purpose of a settlement. Mr. Sullivan's attorney was emphatic in declaring that Mr. Sullivan intended to carry the case to a final trial and it was said that the recent offer of $50,000 to Mrs. Sullivan in the event of a settlement had been withdrawn.

SPORTS MOTORING FILMLAND & DRAMA

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1921.

GRAPHS GRAB WEIRD BATTLE

Still Wondering Who Unmired Ball Game.

Truck Hannah Certainly Took Swing at Job.

Capt. Exort Croter to Safety After the Mix-up.

MY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

This month started like a hapless one for the hapless June groom who had to appear in their first argument, a game which had all the fixings of a first-class fight, and left the wondering who's umpire in the end. It was necessary for two of the players to have been back to the first division by an eyelash that placed the hard-fighting team on the short end of a 5 to 3.

WILD DOINGS.

Joe Croter and Ed Finney, the two who were lost in the week, arrived here from Salt Lake, but this does not appear to be the umpire out of the game of the players entirely. Truck Hannah is claimed to have been back to the first division by an eyelash that placed the hard-fighting team on the short end of a 5 to 3.

HUMORIST COPS ENGLISH DERBY.

FOR CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.

June 1.—Humorist won the classic derby run here today. Viscount Astor's Craig An Bran was second and Joseph Watson's Lemonora was third. Twenty-three horses ran. J. B. Jock's Humorist, the winner of today, ran third in the 2000 guineas at Newmarket in April. Craig An Bran was the winner and Lemonora second in the race.

King George and Queen Mary for the first time drove to the course from London in semicircle. In the past they were driven only to the Ascot meeting.

The crush of Londoners who came to the Derby was so great that airplanes and the dirigible R-23 aided traffic officers by signals and wireless reports.

The time of the race was 2:45.

first up, had stung and scored on a triple by Crawford, Wahoe Sam's third smack of the game. Bert Nishoff was at bat, deeply involved in balls and strikes. Here is Bert's own version of what happened:

"A wide one came over, and Croter turned and said, 'Why, that ball ticked his bat.' Croter said, 'All right, it was a foul strike.' The ball never touched my bat, or any part of me. Had it, I would have called it a strike in the first place. He let Hannah make the decision for him."

*****

WANTS TO FIGHT. Nishoff protested, as did Killefer. Bert wanted to do battle, but was restrained. Killefer picked up a handful of dust. It is believed he threatened to throw the dirt on the plate so Jack would have to dust it off again. This was too much, and Mr. Croter dispersed both men.

*****

WART OF TROUBLE. Nishoff, the real trouble spot, it seems to have fermented the trip here, and in the end, the two who were lost in the week, arrived here from Salt Lake, but this does not appear to be the umpire out of the game of the players entirely. ### Carpentier Starts Real Training.

Here is Italian Joe Gans ducking one of Carpentier's punches while Journee, his French sparring partner, looks on with evident relief. Journee closely resembles Jack Dempsey, which probably is one reason why Georges prefers him as a boxing opponent. This is one of the first pictures of Carpentier in training to reach Los Angeles. ### DEMPEY IN ROLE OF A CRACK SHOT Heavyweight Fistic King Bangs Away at Bunch of Targets in His Camp.

BY HARRY NEWMAN. (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) June 1. Jack Dempsey shot up the town today. Armed with a powerful automatic and tutored by Mike Frost, the Chicago copper, the champion blazed away at targets strung all over the training camp.

The champion is a sure snapper marksmen and while Trant set about to give the scrapper some lessons he found Jack a most apt pupil, and soon gave up and watched him pop off everything aimed at.

One of Dempsey's best shots was the cracking of a small earthen vessel propped on a clothes pole more than 100 yards off. Jack chuckled all over with his success at knocking down targets and surprised the rest of the camp by announcing that he had never taken a shooting lesson in his life. It proved beyond question that Jack has a great eye.

*****

LITTLE DOING. Outside of the shooting performance there was little excitement. Martin Burke, the New Orleans heavyweight, returned to the camp with his left ear thoroughly repaired. He will be ready to resume his left workout next Saturday. Red Cohen, a lightweight from New Orleans, accompanied Burke, and may be added to the fast-growing stable.

Jack Renault hepped off to Buffalo today, where he is scheduled for a rumput with Bob Martin tomorrow night. Lee Hook carried his family, while Larry Williams is enjoying the layoff and not coming near the camp.

Babe Herman and Bernard Dempsey had a quiet little session this morning. The champion's older brother is no mean boxer and made the little bantam step in lively fashion. Bernard used to do some fighting in the old days around the mining camps in Colorado.

PITCHER JUMP TEAM. (BY A. P. MONT WIRE.) TORONTO, June 1.—Tommy Thompson, Toronto International League pitcher, today left the team after having been fined $100. He declined to play against the Rochester team last Saturday, he said, because he had been required to sleep in an upper berth of a sleeping car on the way to Rochester.

TO PLAY FOR DUDLEY CUP. The prep racket swingers of Southern California will have a gala season this week-end when the sixth annual Dudley cup tournament is held at the Santa Monica courts Friday and Saturday. Trophies will be awarded by A. L. Dudley of Santa Monica to each of the boys and girls' divisions.

Only singles will be played. Due to unsettled weather, the date for the tournament was not set until very recently, and T. E. Brockhouse, who is managing the affair, says that late applications will be taken care of.

Harold Goodshall, the net demon from Harvard Military Academy, is the heavy favorite in the tennis division. He has won two legs of the Dudley cup in the past two years.

ALL-YEAR ATHLETICS TO START IN VISALIA.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

VISALIA, June 1.—Organization of all-year athletics in Visalia under the auspices of Visalia Community Service will be undertaken at a meeting called for this evening by R. K. Morey and the executive committee of the Twilight Baseball League, acting for the community service board.

Steps are expected to be taken designating certain athletics for each month in the year with teams representing the various districts in the city competing in community spirit. Much sports as tennis, baseball, basketball, volleyball, ball, swimming, horseback, soccer and basketball will be played.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT ENDS IN EVEN BREAK.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

REDLANDS, June 1.—The annual tennis tournament of the Citrus Belt League ended in a tie, Redlands taking two, Redlands, Riverside, Chaffey and San Bernardino each taking one.

Redlands won the boys' doubles and the girls' singles while Chaffey took the girls' doubles and the boys' singles. Some of the matches were exceptionally hard fought. Chaffey girls being forced to the limit to beat Riverside.

INDIANS FILL GAP IN CATCHING STAFF.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)

CLEVELAND, June 1.—The vacancy on the catching staff of the Cleveland Indians, caused by injuries to Steve O'Neill and Laddie Nunnemaker, will be filled by Arthur E. "Mike" Wilson, who was purchased from the Columbus American Association team, it was announced tonight.

BOY GYMNASIS WILL PERFORM FOR TROPHY.

Picked teams of gymnasts from every high school in Los Angeles will compete on the L.A.A.C. floor tonight for the Lokrantz trophy. The contest will be the culmination of a year's training in physical culture and the team putting on the best exhibition of free floor exercises will be awarded a handsome cup by Supervisor Lokrantz of the department of corrective physical training.

In the girls' competition last week Hollywood carried off the honors and the boys of the institution are out to repeat the performance.

THREE HOMERS SPELL DEFEAT FOR RAINERS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, June 1.—Three home runs helped the Senators defeat Seattle here today, 7 to 3. They were made by Cook, Piek and Compton.

In the sixth inning a fan hurled a torrent of abuse at "Roxy" Middleton, who was conversing with the wife of Manager Bill Rodgers, and "Roxy" secured a bat and charged up the grand stand. He was restrained by several players before he had a chance to use the bludgeon. The fan was ejected from the park amidst jeers. Score:

grounded to the box, and Crawford was left at third for the time being. But Howard Lindmore, who now had his eye on the pay ball, lammed to right for three bases, sending Sam in. Baldwin grounded to Gorman, who held Howard at third, but Reinhart scored him by beating out a single to the Vernon second-batter. Killefer then came to the plate, trying to look innocent and like he never knew that he had been owned. Crozier again told Red that he was persona non grata, and State fled to Schneider.

CUT IT DOWN.
In the seventh, aided by Lindmore's bad throw, the Tigers cut this lead down to one run. Art Reinhart was so hard-pressed in the ninth after Hannah singled and Smith walked with one down, that George Lyons went in and pitched to the last two batters, fanning Stumpy Edgington, who was at the plate with Dal Lock's proxy.

Bill Kasek exercised Love, Faeth and charity toward all, and then finished up with a southpaw. Was Willie Mitchell was the fagender. Los Angeles lifted the lid in the second after Chadbourne had raced to the fence and turned Griggs' long fly into a putout. Singles by Crawford, Nishoff and Baldwin, surrounding Lindmore's sacrifice fly, produced two.

EVENED AT UP.
Resorting to that simple formula, known as a two-handed muf, Vernon evened it in the third. Gorman walked, and Alcock, batting for Love, flied. Chadbourne, ditto. High dragged the ball down to Griggs, and was safe when he beat Reinhart to the base. Gorman going clear to third. Schneider walked, filling the bases. Hannah spun a tall fly which descended near the center of the diamond. Baldwin waved all assistance aside, and then

CONFAB ON RING ARBITER.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, June 1.—Selection over the naming of a substitute referee. Selection of a substitute has been the custom of Rickard for all of his heavyweight championship battles. The trend the moving picture rights discussion will take is uncertain. Under the contract, Rickard holds a 50 per cent share in the prospective films, while Dempsey and Carpenter each hold a 25 per cent interest. Rickard refused to state whether he would consider selling his interest in the films. The boxer's attitude also is undetermined. No difficulty is expected to arise

PANAMA CANAL OPEN SESAME.

Becomes Great Gateway for Pacific Coast.

Shipments East via Water
Steadily Increase.

West to Become Front Door of Canada.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, June 1.—That possibilities of the Panama Canal as a means of quick transportation between Pacific and Atlantic ports are fast becoming apparent is shown by the organization of new lines for the shipment of fruits, vegetables and other fast freight. Wheat is also being sent through the canal from Canada's Pacific ports to Europe, thus making the waterway as a rival of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence route and opening up prospects that the Pacific, instead of the Atlantic, will become Canada's front door.

STEAMER LABORATORY.

The Department of Agriculture makes the statement that as a result of plans worked out in co-operation with the Bureau of Customs, the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Steamship Company is now contemplating equipping the steamship Charles H. Cramp and adapting it to use as a practical laboratory, in which the shipping of citrus fruits and apples from the Pacific Coast to eastern markets by way of the canal can be studied. Several American lines are interested in the economical fitting out of ships to engage in the transportation of perishable fruits and vegetables by way of the Atlantic Coast ports and to Europe, according to the department.

"Most of the discussion of the savings of distance and hence of time," says a bulletin of the Canal Commission, discussing the handling of fast freight by the canal, "by the use of the Panama Canal have been predicated on comparisons of the distance via the canal and alternative water routes. Coal, lumber, oil, ore, heavy machinery, structural iron and steel, grain and cotton were considered to be ideal cargoes for the canal, while perishable goods and shipments of small lots, it was assumed, would be handled by the railways.

UNEXPECTED DEVELOPMENT.

"In general this has been the case, but there has been unexpected development of the speed element in the traffic through the canal, primarily in the United States coastwise trade. Two large coastwise lines are developing express services between the principal Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States.

"By regular services, the regular ships they have endeavored to meet with the railway deliveries on the coast, but the relatively small shipments in point of time, while being able to meet the railway rates, have been from here, but it is significant that the Seattle Chamber of Commerce reports that the coastwise line has started an educational campaign to inform the public of the advantages of the water route, and that a twenty-day schedule for freight shipment between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

"Another development along these lines has been the shipment of perishable fresh fruits through the canal from the western coast of the United States in vessels equipped with refrigeration space. The opening of the canal it has been used for large shipments of fruit, beef and mutton and frozen rabbits from Australia and New Zealand; but until the past half year the refrigerated shipments of fresh fruits from California, Oregon and Washington and British Columbia were sent over the railroads. Then a line of steamships operated by the Holland-America Line and the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company jointly offered refrigerated space for the shipment of apples to Europe. The space was taken quickly and deliveries were made. Subsequently shipments of oranges and lemons from California were made to Atlantic ports of the United States, and in March there passed through the canal what was reported to be the first shipment of citrus fruits from Los Angeles to London by water. It consisted of 100 tons of oranges and 100 boxes of fancy lemons valued at approximately $15,000. It is estimated that the freight saving amounts to 75 cents per box; three days' time is saved by the all-water route in comparison with shipments by rail to New York and thence by steamer; and that the handling of the fruit is reduced to a minimum.

PACIFIC GROWERS URGENT.

"Fruit growers of the Pacific States are said to be urging the coastwise steamship line to make more refrigerated ships available for handling the fruit cargo to the Atlantic Coast. The coastwise traffic through the canal has expanded greatly in the last year, and with the development of express and refrigeration service, may be expected to be an increasingly useful element in the transportation of the United States with its influence penetrating further inland each year."

NOTED SCIENTIST FIRST WOMAN

SO HONORED BY UNIVERSITY.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

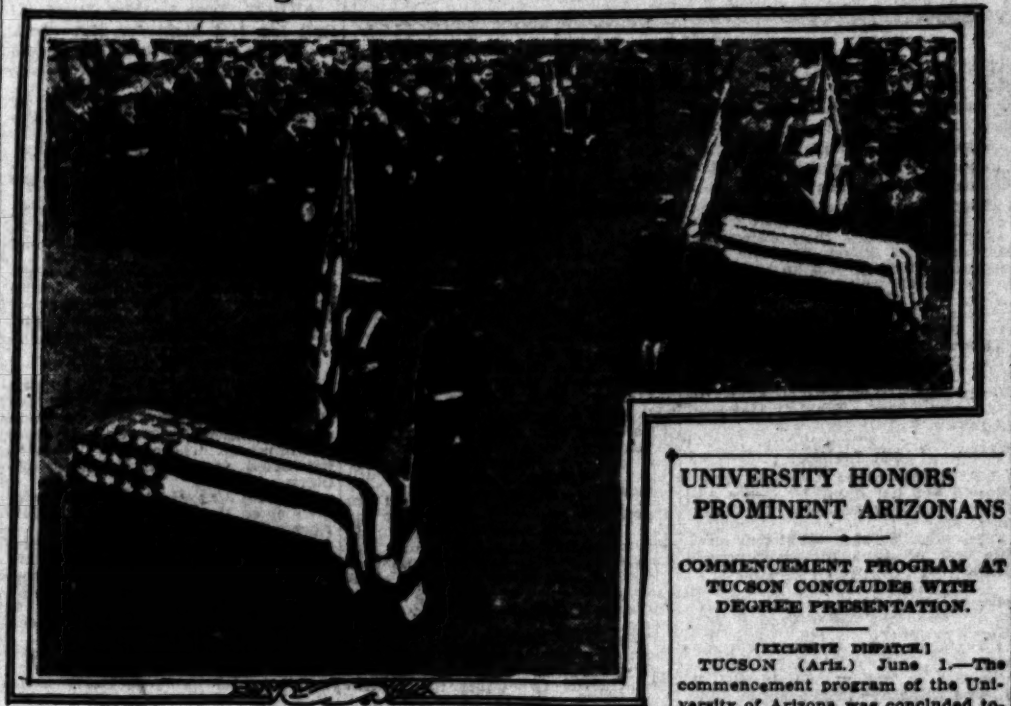

NEW YORK, June 1.—Columbia University today bestowed upon Mme. Marie Curie, discoverer of radium, the honorary degree of doctor of sciences. She was the only woman to receive a degree as well as the only one not an American. The graduates this year totaled 1480 and a precedent was established when six women were graduated as doctors of medicine. One of them, Miss Gaili Lindh Muller, led the entire graduating class in the college of medicine.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Mme. Marie Curie, discoverer of radium, has been obliged further to curtail her trip to western cities on account of poor health, it was announced today.

Proposed visits to Adams, Ariz., cities in California, Salt Lake City and Albany have been canceled. She will leave here tomorrow and go to the Grand Canyon for five days.

First Washingtonians to Fall in Battle Fittingly Honored.

Flag-Draped Caskets of Fallen Soldiers.

The funeral services of two District of Columbia soldiers were held at Washington recently with fitting ceremonies. These two heroes were among the first of the 516 Washingtonians who gave up their lives on the field. Members of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government attended the services, as well as thousands of citizens and members of the American Legion.

FOREIGN OFFICE THINKS REFUSAL TO DISARM WILL BE REPUDED.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

LONDON, June 1.—The British Foreign Office regards the Bavarian refusal to disarm as a bluff and is sure that Bavaria will back down after it realizes the Berlin government means business. The British view is that Bavaria has been led to expect favored treatment if she defies Berlin and the action of certain French politicians is blamed for this attitude.

The British view Bavaria as an indispensable part of the German nation and feel that she will have to make up her mind to share the penalties and responsibilities of the whole state.

LUMBER BUSINESS GROWS.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

NEW ORLEANS, June 1.—Orders on hand at southern pine lumber mills almost have doubled since January 1, according to reports received by the Southern Pine Association. On January 1, it was announced, orders on hand averaged 607,592 feet per mill, while on May 1 an average of 1,210,000 feet is reported, representing an increase of 99 per cent.

HIGH SIERRA SNOWFIELDS

Santa Monica

The Coming of the Water

HEADWATERS OWENS RIVER

Stone Canyon Reservoir

The Los Angeles Aqueduct

Starts from Owens River thirty-five miles north and above where it empties into Owens Lake.
 Finishes at Santa Monica by the Sea.
 Length: Two hundred and fifty miles.
 Cost: Twenty-five million dollars.
 Time to build: Five years—1908 to 1913.
 Finished to Santa Monica 1921.
 Elevation of intake: Thirty-eight hundred and ten feet.
 Fed by the Sierra snowfields.
 Supplies the city of Los Angeles with water.
 Creates electric light, heat and power on its journey—for Los Angeles and its industries.
 Irrigates seventy thousand acres of crops in the San Fernando Valley—in the city of Los Angeles—to feed the people of Los Angeles.
 It is one of the important advantages that bring industries to Los Angeles.
 It helps to advertise Los Angeles.
 Makes possible the present metropolis of western America and the future world market on the Pacific.
 Together with available sources of hydro-electric power it makes the growth of Los Angeles limitless, and makes the city healthful, clean, productive, comfortable and beautiful.

Trunk Line On The Mesa, May 18, 1921 Gate Tower

Los Angeles' Front Door

The building of the reservoir in Stone Canyon, and the distribution of Owens River water over the mesa extending to the Pacific Ocean, mark the culmination of the greatest engineering feat in the history of the West, and will make Santa Monica Bay the front door of Los Angeles—with all that the name implies.—H. M. Gorham, President Bank of Santa Monica.

Rapid Development Will Follow

Nature endowed the Santa Monica district with many rare gifts. The coming of the aqueduct water will open the enjoyment of these gifts to three-quarters of a million people. You may guess the result.
 Tourists also will come as accommodations are provided for them.
 Rapid development will follow the turning on of the water in July.—R. C. Gilla.

Palisades Lots May Be Bought Now at Prices Far Below Present Development Costs

Palisades lots are located on main arteries of travel; near ocean, canyon and mountains; high above the sea, commanding view of ocean and mountains; cooler in summer and warmer in winter than Los Angeles; largely protected from storms and frost; deep, rich alluvial soil; fine paved streets; cement curbs and sidewalks; wide parking; beautiful, grown shade trees; water, gas, electricity, sewer and telephone line in nineteen-foot alleys; Pacific Electric car lines on three sides—through and local; large number of middle and high-priced homes in tract; lots 50x150 and larger; prices, $1200 to $2500 and $3500 to $12,500.
 Maps, price lists, literature and information may be obtained at the main office or at branch offices. Private automobile trips to tract on week days. All building records being broken. Builders and individuals should get in now.

You Who Pine for Paradise

Nowhere in the world has water been so wonderfully potent in transforming the desert into gardens of fruits and flowers as in California—even the mountains and foothills respond to the rains and moisture as in almost no other land. The borderland along the shore of the great sea and extending back to the top of the Santa Monica Mountain Range, and west from the Soldiers' Home and along the coast for ten miles, is now brought under the actual service of the spouting, dashing, splashing, dancing streams from old Mount Whitney—of water, water, water, water!

Now, you, who pine for Paradise, what more do you want—here you have it in limitless measure.—E. P. Clark, Builder of First Railroad to Santa Monica.

And Now We Have It

Santa Monica—the spot on which Pasadena would certainly have stood if the water supply, now assured, had been available twenty years ago.—A. M. Chaffey, President California Bank.

Stone Canyon Dam

Stone Canyon Reservoir

Location: Santa Monica Mountains—see map.
 Elevation: Eight hundred and forty-five feet.
 Capacity: Eight thousand acre feet—more than one-half the capacity of the larger of the two San Fernando reservoirs.
 Purpose: Storage: to supply that part of the city of Los Angeles shown on the map below for domestic and irrigation uses; and to supply the city of Santa Monica when it shall come into the city of Los Angeles.
 Fed from San Fernando reservoir.
 Tunnel through Santa Monica mountains three-fourths of a mile. Size, five by seven feet.
 Tunnel started December 1919—finished February 1921.
 Dam when finished, one hundred and forty-five feet high, nine hundred and fifty feet thick at base, twenty feet at top, and five hundred feet between buttresses.
 Core wall twelve feet thick, and seventy-five feet beneath ground level to bed rock, to prevent seepage.
 Bond issue $700,000. One half of cost to be paid by annexed territory.
 Water now along Stone Canyon Road. Will be through to the sea by July.
 Dam to be finished to full height by the last of this year.

This is Los Angeles' Front Yard—Your Yard—America's Natural Playground on the Pacific—Be Proud of It—Preserve It—Enjoy It—Join in the Activities that will Make It World Famous.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Los Angeles Banker Points Way Back to Full Activity; Business News.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Willis H. Booth, vice-president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, Los Angeles, but actively associated in a similar capacity with the Guaranty Trust Company, of New York, has written for the current issue of The Nation's Business, the official magazine of the United States Chamber of Commerce, an enlightening article which he calls "Getting Us Off the Dead Center," and which reviews the lack of activity in the world back to full activity, which, as the author sees it, lies in a wise use of her credit in foreign countries.

Mr. Booth's program for getting business back to full speed is brief: Co-operate. If practical, on non-political basis with the Allies and Germany in restoring the economy. Postpone Allies' indebtedness to United States for a period paralleling the indemnity settlements. Further consideration to these indebtedness can be given when the economic situation throughout the world is clarified. Adjust carefully and constructively international trade relations so that we may become, as far as it is practicable, a buying and a selling nation.

Perfect machinery for loaning abroad, both on long-term credits and on fixed investments, marketable either direct or through debentures based upon the foreign security. Educate our people to think internationally. Establish a permanent national policy under which our standing for the power which comes from fairness and right, shall protect American and legitimate American interests wherever dispersed about the globe.

ALFALFA MARKET.
Sales department of the Alfalfa Growers of California is authority for the statement that because of recent large additions to the membership of the co-operative marketing organization the Los Angeles market is now about 35 per cent nearer the cost line of production than was the case a few weeks ago. Recent rains did a great deal of damage and reduced the immediate supply of hay. The market for No. 1 dairy is nearly bare and prices are firm around $24 to $25 in Los Angeles; standard is quoted at $20; stock at $15, and fertilizer at $15. Northern quotations are $17 per ton for No. 1 dairy and $15 for standard.

FUNDS RELEASED.
The city of Phoenix, Ariz., was seriously embarrassed financially by the suspension of the Central Bank several weeks ago because the municipality had on deposit in that institution a large sum of money secured by seven insurance companies whose liabilities ranged as high as $50,000. These companies have entered into the scheme of bank reorganization on the basis of creditors, and will pay to the city the sums assured in return an amount in excess of the latter's interest in the deposits.

AS SEEN BY OTHERS.
The crop forecast on the whole is more promising than it often is at this season. A world-wide demand for capital is pressing upon the American market. The bond market is developing gradually a broader investment demand. June promises to be an interesting month in the money market because of the large tax payments to the government on the fifteenth, as well as heavy aggregate payments which must be made on account of securities put out in this market by domestic and foreign borrowers.

The rise in foreign exchange rates made it easier for foreign countries to purchase supplies in this market and there is no doubt that the foreign trade outlook is more promising than it was a few weeks ago. The situation, however, calls for careful planning and straight thinking, as there are many uncertainties to reckon with in the conditions prevailing both at home and abroad.

The tremendous over-subscription to the United States Treasury's recent $300,000,000 offering of short-term certificates of indebtedness shows that there is an abundance of funds awaiting temporary investment at 4 1/2 per cent if offered by a borrower of the highest credit. [National City Bank of Chicago.]

The remarkable growth of the Salt River Valley is reflected in the steady growth of earnings made by the Central Arizona Light and Power Company. In 1919 the gross income of this company was $354,269, whereas in 1920 the gross was $1,077,262, an increase of 300 per cent.

Blyth, Witter & Co. report the earnings of the Nevada-California Electric Corporation for April, and also for the twelve months ended April 30, 1921. The earnings of the corporation are widely held in Southern California.

The earnings show gratifying increases in both gross and net, and economies are indicated by the fact that the operating ratio for the month of April was only 42 per cent. Gross earnings were 18 per cent greater than in the month of April, 1920, while total income in April, 1921, was 24 per cent greater than in April, 1920.

The announcement that the Railroad Commission had granted a 6-cent fare, with restrictions, to the Los Angeles Street Railway Company, was no surprise to those familiar with the various subsidies and is in line with frequent predictions appearing in this column.

LISTED IN NEW YORK.
The local offices of Blair & Co., Inc., report that the issue of $10,000,000 Pan-American Marine and Equipment 7 per cent sinking fund bonds, which were sold here in August of last year, have been listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

BOND OFFERINGS.
Merrill, Lynch & Co., through their local offices, are distributing a bond offering containing a list of bond offerings bearing 4 per cent interest, which have been sold recently at the local market. The circular gives the rate, maturity, price, and yield of the various issues listed.

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.
Tom Reed appears to have entered another decline, after rallying from an earlier attack. This stock was the most active trader on the local exchange yesterday, when it sold down from an opening at 67 cents to a close at 62 1/2 cents bid. The balance of the market was spotty with volume light and prices generally weak. Goodyear preferred lost a point, going from $9 to $8. At the close it was 55 bid at $9. Southern California Edison was firm at $21. Union Oil of California moved in small lots at $39.25, and the Delaware company at $21.

DOG MARKET.
There is an upward tendency manifesting itself in the dog market, a 3-cent advance having been recorded since the holidays. Butters is steady.

PERSONAL MENTION.
John W. Law, who for the past year has been in charge of the local office of the United States Bureau of Markets, has resigned from the government employ, and after June 4 will be associated with A. B. Barber, former shipper of fruit and vegetables. Mr. Law will be succeeded by a member of the Chicago office of the Bureau of Markets.

WET AND DRY BATTLE EVEN.

Supreme Court Decision is Blow at Prohibition.

But House Committee Report Would Bar Beer.

Corps of John Barleycorn Squirms in Grave.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Wet and dry broke even today in their battle over the corpse of John Barleycorn.

The Supreme Court rendered a decision giving prohibition enforcement a jolt, but in the same moment the House Judiciary Committee emerged from its arid haunts with a favorable report on the Volstead bill prohibiting the prescription of beer to a medicine and otherwise tightening up the dry laws.

By unanimous decision the Supreme Court held that the old internal revenue laws which regulated the manufacture of liquor before the Volstead law became effective were repealed by its passage, even though they were not inconsistent with it. The decision was a defeat for the Federal government and the Anti-Saloon League, which had contested the case vigorously in the court.

It opens the way for the release of scores of persons who have been convicted since the Volstead Act became effective, of violating the old internal revenue laws.

Scores of persons convicted under the old laws since the Volstead Act became effective, of violating the old internal revenue laws, will be released.

The decision was a defeat for the Federal government and the Anti-Saloon League, which had contested the case vigorously in the court.

It opens the way for the release of scores of persons who have been convicted since the Volstead Act became effective, of violating the old internal revenue laws.

BETTER OUTLOOK FOR BUSINESS.

Definite Turn for Better Has Been Taken.

Little Prospect for Any Sharp Improvement.

Readjustment in Wages Has Been Slow.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—While a "definite turn for the better" has been taken apparently by some branches of industry and the business outlook continues generally more favorable than it has been for some time, the Federal Reserve Board declared tonight in its May report.

Recovery in production and distribution has been in progress, the board said, but slowly and greatly retarded. However, the more hopeful attitude has continued and in preparing for active development in some industries.

Financially, the month was one of increasing strength and more prosperous outlook, the board asserted. In various sections it was explained, there has been an easing of the demand for funds resulting partly from acceptance of lower price levels and from the adjustment of business to new credits.

PRICES IRREGULAR. Irregularity and lack of uniformity still exist in the retail price field, the board observed. Serious obstacles to the final adjustment of wages were forecast unless retail prices move much faster to their final basis.

Adjustment between wages and prices, especially retail prices, is exhibiting difficulties, the board maintained, while readjustment in wages has been slow.

Unstability of wholesale prices, the board asserted, was retarding buying for future delivery in many lines.

FOREIGN TRADE DULL. In the wholesale and retail trade there has been some recession, mainly seasonal, it continued, the report being only sporadic.

Foreign trade was described as still retarded, with its movement continuing toward a more nearly equal balance of imports and exports. Especially noteworthy has been the volume of goods as reflected in the figures showing decreased foreign shipments and increased receipts from the United States.

"Unemployment was on the increase," the board reported. The situation being characterized as unfavorable and backward. The wet, cold weather, it explained, interfered with crop development and did great damage in certain sections. The fruit crop suffered severely, it reported, and the development of the cotton crop has been retarded.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Volstead bill, designed to prevent use of medical beer, was agreed on today by the House Judiciary Committee, which will report it to the House, probably tomorrow, with a request for its immediate passage.

Prohibition leaders declared there were votes enough to put it through before the Bureau of Internal Revenue could make effective proposed regulations by which beer could be prescribed for the ailing under a ruling of former Atty.-Gen. Palmer.

Although the measure would make the Prohibition Enforcement Act more drastic, representatives of the drug and favoring extract trades won their fight against a section restricting the medicinal or denaturating of alcohol prior to its withdrawal from warehouses and distilleries for manufacturing purposes.

BILL SLIGHTLY CHANGED. Chairman Volstead, by direction of the committee, introduced a draft of his bill, slightly modified in some particulars. The section prohibiting importation and manufacture of liquor until such time as the government supervision has been materially reduced or exhausted was retained.

The redrafted measure, while placing certain restrictions around the sale of wine to medical purposes, does not include the original provision which would have outlawed wine as a medicine along with a short measure for the limitation of alcohol withdrawal for medicinal and gives the commission authority to find any preparation is being used as a beverage, to require a change of name so that it would be rendered actually unfit for drinking.

LIMITS PRESCRIPTIONS. The section relating to doctors, virtually revised, follows: "No physician shall prescribe nor shall any person sell or furnish on his prescription a quantity of liquor containing more than 34 percent of alcohol by volume, nor shall any doctor or sell or furnish on any prescription more than one-fourth of one gallon of liquor or any liquor that contains more than one-half pint of alcohol for use by any member within any period of ten days.

"No physician shall be furnished with more than one hundred prescriptions blank for use in any period of ninety days, nor shall any physician issue more than that number of prescriptions within any such period unless on application therefor he shall make it clearly apparent to the commissioner that for some extraordinary reason a larger number is necessary."

The bill also would extend the dry law to Hawaii and the Virgin Islands, but not to the Philippines.

DEFENSE SAYS BOY OF UNSOUND MIND. SURPRISE SPRUNG IN INDIANA MURDER TRIAL; SELF-DEFENSE WAS EXPECTED.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1.—With the State demanding the death penalty and the defense setting up a plea of insanity, the trial of Virgil Decker, charged with the murder of his cousin, Leroy Lovett, went on today in the Kosciusko Circuit Court.

The filing of a written plea declaring Decker was of unsound mind at the time the offense charged was committed, was sprung as a surprise by Decker's attorneys. Self-defense was expected to be the plea of the defense.

Interest in the trial centers more in the evidence which may be brought out involving other members of his family in a plot to defraud the county government of $14,000 of insurance payable to Decker, than it does in the fate of Virgil himself.

MANY ROTARIANS TO ATTEND CONVENTION. NEW YORK, June 1.—Eleven hundred members of Rotary clubs in the United States and Canada, called today for Liverpool. They will attend the twelfth annual convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, at Edinburgh, Scotland, June 12 to 16.

Two hundred representatives of cotton growers and manufacturers who will attend the world cotton conference to be held in Liverpool and Manchester from June 1 to 12, also sailed.

MAKE I R. BIRD COLLEGE HEAD.

Theologian Succeeds Evans as Occidental Chief.

Bear Named Board President in Place of Gamble.

New Professors Are Added to Institution's Faculty.

Dr. John Willis Bear, former president of Occidental College, has been elected president of the board of trustees of the institution, succeeding D. B. Gamble, and Dr. Reman Du Bois Bird, 32 years of age, has been selected as head of the faculty in place of Dr. Elias Evans, resigned. It was announced yesterday, Mr. Gamble, the announcement was resigned because of the press of personal affairs.

It was further announced that Dr. Bear, who has been treasurer, has resigned and in his place J. W. Burns of Los Angeles was elected. Dr. Bird and former Newhall of San Rafael were elected trustees of the Occidental College. He is a personal and intimate friend of Dr. Bird, the new president.

NEW PROFESSORS. Several new professors have been added to the faculty, but definite announcements will not be made until commencement day, June 11. Dr. Bird was born in New York City Jan. 3, 1888. He received his early education in Uster Academy, from which he was graduated in 1904, and then he attended Lafayette College. In 1909 he received his bachelor of arts degree from that institution.

In 1912 he completed his theological course at Princeton Seminary and the degree of bachelor of divinity was conferred upon him for advanced work there. The following year he spent in study at the University of Berlin in Germany, having taken the fellowship in history at Princeton. Upon his return to the United States he was called to the faculty of San Francisco Seminary, Theological Seminary from 1918-1919. In 1919 he was called to the faculty of San Francisco Seminary. In 1919 Lafayette College granted him the doctor of divinity degree.

SERVED OVERSEAS. During the war Dr. Bird played a prominent part in the Y.M.C.A. in both Army and Navy work, spending

LITTLE BIRDS SELL AUTOS.

Queer Notion Expressed by Man Who Just Bought an Automobile.

"I hate to give a shock to automobile salesmen," said a caller at The Times classified advertising department yesterday, "but it's the little birds that are talking people into buying automobiles these days. You can't walk a block but what one of 'em gets up on a fence and begins singing, 'Get a car! Get a car!' They say it in different words, but it all means the same thing; and, I tell you, when a whiff of country air blows down the street and you hear this bird stuff the combination gets you. Yup, the birds sold me the auto. All the salesman did was to take the money."

Little birds may supply the impulse, but the agency through which people buy automobiles is Times want ads.

Dr. Bird has published a book of poems under the title, "The Return." The "Book of the John Knox Poems" is the product of his pen. He is a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity and also of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco. Mrs. Bird is a musician of unusual talent.

JAPANESE DUE SOON.

Nine Japanese Statesmen on Tour of Nation, to Stop Here.

Nine Japanese statesmen, composing a parliamentary party which is on an unofficial observation tour of the United States, will arrive in Los Angeles next Saturday morning, according to an announcement yesterday by Consul Oyama, of Japan. The visitors, while here, will study racial, political, social and economic questions, the consul stated. The party includes representatives of the Rikyoku (Friendly) party; the Kenmei (Constitutional) party; the Kokumin (National) party, and the Koshin Club (Independent).

HOT EXCHANGES IN BANK CASE.

Pyle and Conner Go to Trial on Charge of Looting.

Government Outlines Hectic Finance Accusations.

Defense Interrupts Coulston With Strong Objections.

The trial of Edward J. Pyle, until last August vice-president of the National Bank and Trust Company of Pasadena, and W. J. Conner, former president of the Master Pictures, Inc., on the joint charge of conspiracy to misappropriate money of a national bank, amounting to about $10,000, is in full swing before a jury in U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court.

Only one witness was summoned yesterday after the completion of the jury. He is J. R. Coulston, who was president of the bank at the time of the alleged looting of its funds last summer.

Mr. Coulston made an excellent witness for the government, but his testimony was interrupted by hot objections on the part of the attorneys representing the defendants. The statement of the case from the standpoint of the prosecution by W. Fleet Palmer, also brought out a vigorous protest.

The high point of the government's charges was that Mr. Pyle was financially interested in the moving-picture business of Mr. Conner, and that the funds of the bank were used to finance a losing proposition.

One of the surprises of the day was the appearance of Newton J. Skinner, at one time associated with Mr. Conner in the conduct of the All Night and Day Bank, this city. Mr. Skinner is now a broker in New York. He has been subpoenaed by the government as a witness. Mr. Skinner says that Conner drew a draft on him for $10,000, but that he had no official notice of the fact.

Mr. Palmer said there were serious events in the indictment, charging that there were many drafts drawn on people who did not owe a cent to Mr. Conner, and had no investment in the moving picture enterprise. Mr. Coulston said he discovered the "phony" drafts alleged to have been drawn by Mr. Conner through the cashier of the Citizens National Bank of Los Angeles and immediately made an investigation. He called Mr. Pyle into his office and said Mr. Pyle declared that Mr. Conner had gotten into the bank expecting every day to clean the matter up. While they were talking Mr. Conner came in and Mr. Coulston asked him: "What does this mean?" He said Mr. Conner replied: "I was caught in the stream and have not yet succeeded in getting out."

DRIVE FUND MOUNTS.

Y.W.C.A. Reports Campaign Total is Near Thirty Thousand.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. campaign committee made their reports yesterday, bringing their grand total up to $28,265. Yesterday's total was $12,719, team No. 8 winning high place with $1415, while the executive committee and team No. 3 followed in second and third places. All team workers will meet at the campaign headquarters, 631 South Spring street for supper Friday at 4:30 p.m. An interesting program will be presented as a feature of the evening.

WARNING FOR WETS.

Dry Law Will be Rigidly Enforced, Says Judge Bledsoe.

The Eighteenth Amendment will remain on the books and will be enforced. This opinion was expressed yesterday by U. S. District Judge Bledsoe in an address on "Law Enforcement," at the City Club luncheon. Speaking of law enforcement, Judge Bledsoe said that the test of real citizenship is a man's attitude toward a law. In the judge's opinion a man should obey a law if it is on the statute books, whether he likes the law or not, and his conclusion is that a real American will obey the law in every particular. He said that respect for the law is the keynote of true citizenship. So long as he remains on the bench he intends, he says, to enforce the law to the very letter, no matter whom the case hits.

What every wife should know

A wife should know that the law permits her husband by making a Will to provide for her future comfort, to relieve her of many legal problems, and to prevent annoyances and disappointments.

She should know, too, that through his Will, her husband can create a trust, protecting her against ill-advised investments, freeing her from the responsibilities of management, insuring the preservation of the property, and securing to her the fullest benefit from the estate.

A wife should encourage her husband to make his Will, to name a Trust Company as the executor and trustee under his Will, and—to do these things NOW.

"That reminds me!"

HEINZ OVEN BAKED BEANS with Tomato Sauce

It reminds you of three things: how good they taste, how nourishing they are, and that you had better order a supply now while you are thinking about it.

The good taste is due to oven baking—plus perfect seasoning and flavoring with Heinz delicious Tomato Sauce. Eating a wholesome, perfectly prepared, easily digested meal is bound to be nourishing.

Always keeping a supply on hand, and ordering a dozen or so cans at a time, means that you won't be disappointed at home when you want Heinz Baked Beans—and that you save money in buying.

CRYER ASSAILS SPOILS SYSTEM.

Mayorality Candidate Speaks to Commercial Board.

Says He Will Seek Efficiency. Harmony in Office.

Wages Campaign Untrammeled by Hasty Pledges.

Denouncing the prevalent spoils system in municipal government, George E. Cryer, Mayorality candidate, spoke at the weekly luncheon of the Commercial Board at 729 South Broadway yesterday noon and told some 150 business and professional men that if elected Mayor next Tuesday he will go into office without a single appointment pledged.

Mr. Cryer quoted from Bryce's "American Commonwealth" in which American municipalities are scored for what the author declares is the spirit of selfishness that governs many appointments and acts of a successful candidate. "Too often," said Mr. Cryer, "this spirit of selfishness favors their interests conflict with those of the public. If elected Mayor of Los Angeles I will take office with no embarrassing promises to hamper me in my administration and I will be devoted to a policy of bringing about harmony and efficiency in the government of this city."

DEMANDS EFFICIENCY. Mr. Cryer went on to say that the same efficiency should be expected from the Mayor of Los Angeles that is expected from the head of any big business corporation. He declared that the important appointive positions in his administration would not be filled merely with a view to his own political advancement, but that he would select the most capable men he could find to fill various places, appealing to his sense of civic duty if necessary, to get them to accept the appointments.

Gilbert Lee, who presided at the luncheon, introduced Mr. Cryer as "the next Mayor of Los Angeles." When he finished speaking, Mr. Cryer was applauded heartily for several minutes. A brief reception for him followed the luncheon.

Other numbers on the luncheon program were short speeches by E. C. D. Frier, a character analyst, and Edward J. Crowley, a song by Gerald R. Goldwater, baritone.

INDORSE HARBOR BONDS.

The harbor bonds to be voted on June 7 were indorsed unanimously at the Commercial Board meeting. F. C. Mosley, chairman of the civic organization committee, and E. G. Judah, member of the finance committee, asked for a rising vote and everyone present stood.

SUIT BEGUN FOR DENTON INSURANCE.

Estate of the Murdered Man Starts Action for Fifteen Thousand.

Another chapter was added to the Denton murder case yesterday when the estate of Jacob Charles Denton filed a suit for $15,000 against the Employers' Liability Association, representing the insurance on the dead man's life. It was one year ago today when Lofie Louise Peste did kill and murder Jacob Charles Denton, by shooting him in the back of the neck. The action was brought by Atty. Rush M. Blodgett for Judge Atty. as administrator of the estate. Through the suit the estate hopes to obtain the $15,000 insurance which Denton carried in the company, which has failed in England. Under the California court decisions, it is asserted that murder is an accident within the meaning of the policy, unless it is shown that the victim was the aggressor. "The suit is purely formal at this time," said Judge Atty yesterday. "It was filed so that court records would show the formal claim before a year had expired after the murder."

Mrs. Peste, convicted in Judge Willis's court of the murder, is awaiting the outcome of her appeal from the verdict.

Bank Clerks to Give Dance to Help Veterans.

The bank clerks of Los Angeles are planning a dance for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, at the Ambassador on the 8th inst. The committee in charge of the dance is:

T. M. Perry, manager Hollywood Branch California Bank, chairman; Mrs. L. W. Scollard, State superintendent of Bank office, vice-chairman; Miss Beale Newby, California Bank, secretary; J. W. Lewis, assistant cashier, Union Bank and Trust Company, treasurer; W. M. Cameron and E. Johnson, Security Trust and Savings Bank; F. R. Bradshaw, Bank of Italy; J. E. Enshoff, Citizens National Bank; H. E. Getchell, Guaranty Trust and Savings Bank; W. R. Ream, First National Bank; S. Silber, Merchants National Bank; W. J. Sengel, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank; Fred Swenson and T. E. Ivey, assistant cashiers, California Bank; Robert Helms, Farmers' and Merchants National Bank; L. R. Rave, assistant cashier, Continental National Bank; T. C. Dean, Commercial National Bank; E. A. Moore, Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings Bank; Dean Sturges, assistant cashier, Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank; R. D. Oliver, assistant cashier, First National Bank of Hollywood and Thomas F. McJilton, Federal Reserve Bank.

It is the hope of the committee that they will be able to turn over to the relief committee of Post No. 1, Disabled Veterans of the World War, the entire proceeds from the sale of tickets, which may be purchased at any Los Angeles bank, as there is virtually no expense attached to this dance.

Those in charge of the arrangements have secured one of the Ambassador's orchestras.

POLITICS.

THE WATCHMAN.

Trend of Political Thought and Action.

By the Sentry on His Beat.

Members of the city's leading patriotic organizations yesterday expressed their indignation at the tactics employed by Hearst's Los Angeles Examiner in its frantic effort to re-elect Mayor Snyder. On Tuesday morning the Examiner published a purported record of George E. Cryer's public service, which entirely omitted stating the fact that Mr. Cryer answered President McKinley's call for volunteers and served through the Spanish-American War as a member of Los Angeles' own Seventh Regiment. Mr. Cryer was rapidly promoted and was mustered out as a first sergeant. The members of the company presented Sergeant Cryer with a gold watch in appreciation of his fairness to the men under his command. Mr. Cryer is an active member of the United Spanish-American Veterans' organization as well as being enrolled with the Veterans of All American Wars. The deliberate omission of Mr. Cryer's record is in line with countless similar other attempts of the Hearst newspapers and other organs to discredit the candidates, but the only effect of this campaign of misrepresentation will be to increase Mr. Cryer's plurality on June 7.

The Clean Government League of California has indorsed George E. Cryer for Mayor, and the following other candidates: For Board of Education, Grace R. Ashley, Martha C. Harmon, C. J. McCormick, C. E. Seaman, Ezeriah Rhoads and M. J. S. York; for City Council, O. P. Conaway, Ralph L. Criswell, W. J. Darling, Edward J. Deloria, F. C. Langdon, W. J. Sanborn, R. S. "Cupid" Sparks and Frank H. Trust.

That the outlying districts of Los Angeles are entitled to a better lighting system, is the statement of Councilman Sanborn, whose campaign is based on better lighting, a system of viaducts and the elimination of all grade crossings within the city limits.

Mr. Sanborn, whose policy is constructive first, is being supported by civic organizations. The United Church Brotherhood, the Anti-Saloon League, the Wholesale and Retail Grocers' Association, and other bodies anxious to place in the Council men who stand for a greater Los Angeles. Mr. Sanborn said yesterday: "You can see that I stand for a greater Los Angeles, and in order to make our city finer and greater, we need a better lighting system for such districts in Los Angeles as Boyle Heights, for instance. We also greatly need a system of viaducts that will give the suburban citizens a chance to reach the heart of our city without spending an hour of time in traffic jams. Let us demand that they be eliminated. Let us follow a constructive policy, and we shall see Los Angeles become one of the great cities of the world."

Mrs. Ida Works Darling, the only woman candidate for the City Council, who is making addresses in various parts of the city, recently appeared before the Dayton Heights Civic Center, at the Boyle Heights branch library, and before the People's Civic Club in the Garden-street school house. She also was a speaker at a garden party held at 4926 South Granger Place. Mrs. Darling's appeal for support for the City Council is based on her active work in public affairs of the city. For two years she was president of the Woman's City Club, a member of the present City Planning Commission. In letters sent out by Mrs. Darling's campaign committee, it is stated that the women voters of Los Angeles are entitled as a matter of justice to representation in the City Council.

D. Joseph Coyne, independent candidate for the Board of Education, has been given the indorsement of a long list of prominent men and women of the city, each of whom is taking an active part in his campaign. Mr. Coyne, who is president of the Social Service Commission, has embodied in his platform increased salaries for teachers. In this regard he declares: "An efficient, well-trained, enthusiastic, ambitious teaching force cannot be formed if the teachers are to receive a proper return by way of salary." Included among Mr. Coyne's indorsers and active supporters in his campaign are Mrs. Julia Kaufmann, Mrs. John R. Myers, Ray M. Johnson, Mrs. W. Blayden, Mrs. F. W. Fuller, Mrs. J. T. Anderson, Mrs. H. R. Troland, and Miss Mary Win.

Among the organizations indorsing Mr. Coyne for the school board are the Associated War Veterans, Retail Grocers' Association and the Municipal League.

Setting forth some of the uses to which the $4,800,000 harbor bonds will be put, if approved at election day, the Chamber of Commerce carried its campaign for the bonds to the women's clubs yesterday. Let- ters were sent to every club woman in the city explaining a few of the needs of harbor development. One of the items in the program mapped out by the chamber, in case the bonds carry, will be the erection of a new $1,000,000 pier. This includes transit sheds, railroad tracks and streets connecting with it, and will provide the means of handling considerable more business than can be handled now. The bonds will appear on the ballot as Proposition No. 7, and Chamber of Commerce officials, prominent business men and club women unite in urging their passage on election day.

MURDER PLAN TOLD.

Slayer of Woman and Self Intended to Kill Officials, Is Report.

(INCLUDES DISPATCH.) SAN DIEGO, June 1.—A. J. Cannon, who shot his divorced wife Saturday and then killed himself, planned to murder D. J. Jennings, justice of the peace, and P. M. Andrews, deputy district attorney. It was learned yesterday from a former prisoner in the County Jail. Cannon is said to have told this man that he intended to kill Mr. Jennings because he thought the justice had been too mean on Cannon for threatening to kill his wife. A bench warrant had been issued against Cannon for the murder of his former wife and himself and officials believe he knew of it and so he decided to get rid of Jennings before he was arrested. Cannon had appeared in court several times because of his threats to injure his divorced wife. He shot her from the window of a hotel Saturday as she was walking in the street.

HER FORM DIVINE.
[A Rondeau.]
Her form divine, some years ago,
(I thought it was, I did not know)
Of which I wrote an ode or two
To show my love was ever true,
Is now—but bear my tale of woe!

Oh, fashion scant, I hate you so,
For giving me an awful blow;
Revealing what I never knew,
Her form divine.

But still if dresses now must show
The limbs inclined to bend or bow,
The Muse will find, no doubt, in
Her form divine.

That Venus is a point of view,
And praise again, in measure true,
Her form divine.

OROTHY DIX TALKS

Don't Press-Agent Mother.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

It has been said that a distressed man never praises one woman to another woman. Taking this by and large it is good advice. It is especially good advice when it comes to a man who is holding up his marriage as a model to his wife.

"My husband's mother is a splendid woman," remarked a woman who was discussing this subject the other day, "and I think I should have been very fond of her if I had not had her thrown in my teeth so continually, but, as it is, I am fed up on her until I can't abide her. From the very day of my marriage my husband has harped continually on what mother says and mother does, and the way mother cooks, until I am sick and tired of mother and all pertaining to her."

"More than that, he is always talking about his love for his mother and how nobody can ever take a mother's place, and about mother's influence and so on. Now, I want my husband to admire his mother and to love her, and I've got sense enough to realize that the way a man loves his mother and the way he loves his wife are not the same, and that the two affections do not conflict."

"Also, I have enough intelligence to perceive that most of the things that he says about his mother are pure sentimentality. It's the traditional 'home and mother' stuff that men are so strong for after they get away from home and mother far enough to idealize them."

"I don't mean that my husband isn't devoted to his mother, and that he doesn't admire her. He does, and with good reason; but when she is with him I notice that she gets on his nerves with her little peculiarities, and that even the dishes that she cooks for him, and that he used to like as a boy, seem to have lost their flavor."

"Now, I wouldn't for the world pull my mother-in-law down off the pedestal on which her son has put her, but, all the same, there are times when I wish that my husband would quit burning incense at her feet long enough to light a few frank sticks before mine."

"And also I wish that he would quit comparing us, always to my disadvantage, and telling me what mother did, and what mother didn't do, under entirely different conditions of life. It is doubtless true that mother did not wear dresses that were short in the skirt and low in the neck, and mother did not belong to bridge clubs, and didn't automobile, and golf, and one-step, always having and cleaning and worked from sun to sun; but fashion and conditions and customs have changed since then."

"If I should dress as my husband's mother did, he wouldn't be mean out on the street with me, if I had as narrow a range of interest as she had, and a conversational repertoire that only a cook in the kitchen and nursery, I would bore him stiff. If I was nothing but the household drudge that his mother was, he would and some other woman to play around with him."

against mother-in-law and found wanting. They are forever being compared to mother-in-law to their disadvantage, and it is not in human nature to endure this with patience. A man rubs it in on his wife that she falls far short of the perfection of his mother. A woman lets her husband see, at every turn, that it is mother she turns to for advice and counsel, that it is mother she admires above him, and the result is that woman and man, who have to listen to a never-ending stream of praise of mother, come to hate her.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Should Dig Deeper.

GLENDAL, June 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Eugene Brown's write-up of Glendale, in your issue of the 25th, as to blue laws, city manager, etc., was read with great interest. It is unfortunate that because a few men did wrong all of our brave heroes, who were in France should be insulted. Men who gave their life blood for the slacker to stay at home, now to be attacked by such malicious writers as "Heywood McManama."

I have lived around Army camps for the past twenty years, and, unfortunately, soldiers will always be assailed by such as "he."

Indeed, he doesn't need worry that the heroes will hurt him, the heroes are men who are only trying to recover their former health, and the average man of the American Legion is still the "cream of the American manhood," a law-abiding citizen, and a man whom we are all proud to know and help until he is able to help himself.

MRS. T. H. BERGE.

His strike at the drug stores being closed on the 24th suggested his car was out of order and that he could not get a prescription which he needed badly. What seemed to hurt him most was the Sunday regulations and the manager of the city. Many asked who Eugene Brown was, where he got his information, was he boasting for "Hollywood?" One man opined that he must have passed over the car line or he would have called readers' attention to the fact that we pay 17 cents car fare to the great city of Los Angeles, while others reading at greater distance thought he belonged to the telephone company or he would have called the public's attention to excessive telephone tolls paid by Glendale people. And still another surmised that he was an agent of some pool table company, as he called attention to the fact of our lack of billiards and like amusements.

We were disappointed that Mr. Brown did dig no deeper. Compare Eugene—look down into our cesspools. Investigate our railways, which lie in the center of our principal street crossing. Tell us how to get a postoffice of our own. Tell us why our city employees' salaries have just been raised. Stir up the pep in long whippers and check-overs again. It will do them good.

C. M. FRAZIER.

Rival Klan. HOLLYWOOD, June 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A few days ago the local Hearst yellow sheets carried a story about the organization of the notorious Ku Klux Klan in Los Angeles. It seems to me about time something was done to combat this dangerous secret organization, the members of which are too cowardly to even allow their names to become known.

Some little time back you published a fine editorial against the Ku Klux Klan in California, and it seems to me that The Times could do much good now by directing the spotlight of publicity on this anti-American band, which the Hearst press seems to have taken under its wing and become the local publicity organs for.

Despite the organizers' fine words the Ku Klux Klan is a lawless band of fanatics, which should find no place in American civilization. What is the use of talking of law and order if this outfit is to take the law into its own hand whenever it sees fit? Its very existence is an insult to the things it is supposed to uphold—the Constitution, and so forth.

In New York and other parts of the East a rival clan has been organized to fight the Ku Klux Klan. If these fanatics become active in California it means that a rival clan will also spring up here and that will mean war. Are the people here going to stand?

ARTHUR GANNON.

The Milk Question. LOS ANGELES, June 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Saw your article a few weeks ago, comparing Los Angeles milk prices with Wisconsin, the article stating that the Wisconsin dealers had dropped their price from 15 cents per quart to 11 cents, while the dealers in Los Angeles are charging 15 cents.

At that time Wisconsin dairies were working under winter conditions, while the California ones were on a full grade basis, showing that under those conditions Wisconsin prices should be considerably higher than California at that time; if local prices are fair.

Smells Unionism. [To the Editor of The Times:] In rebuttal to Mr. E. R. White's article of May 23, entitled "Insists He Is Right," it appears to me I can get a time of unionite propaganda in his argument. Viz: Raise my wages, permit me to do less work. But the other fellows, no matter what their commodities, if I need them, cut them, they are profiteers. Let us admit that Mr. White is right, that the railroad rates are $1.92 per hundred pounds, or a rise of rates to 25 cents per box on oranges to New York.

Admitting the growers are entitled to no profit for picking the soil for seven or eight years to bring a tree to bearing, buying the land, developing water, paying exorbitant taxes, fighting bugs, fungus diseases, fertilizing and other expenses, numerous to mention. Just why, at this time, when everything has a downward, prewar tendency, should the railroads be permitted to take a rise of 25 cents per box to pay the labor unionite, who, in order to change a nose tip in the front end of a locomotive, finds it necessary to call a boiler maker and his helper to open the door, and call a pipefitter and his helper to remove the blow pipe, and call a machinist and his helper to remove the tip, and all this force used over again in placing the new tip. This is one out of many dozen ways the unions have of grafting money on the railroads. For further information, read the investigation by the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee of May 16 or 17, in the Los Angeles Times.

As for figuring out who's the profiteer, we have the main profiteer spotted, and that is the unionite who is pulling down his war-time wages and doing as little as possible. As for the balance of the profiteers, Mr. White can hunt them up. Here is a list on which he can work: Grower, picker, packer, railroads, refrigerator or icing, cartage, jobber three or four times and retailer, who usually about doubles the price. Space is too valuable to go into details extensively, but let's figure just a little. Say there are 450 boxes of oranges per car, which, at sixty pounds per box, equals 27,000 pounds, 24,000 pounds at $1.32 per 100 pounds equals $319.20 per car. Forty cars to train, equals $12,768 for an eleven-day haul. As the railroads are losing money the employees must be getting it. I figure there is something rotten somewhere. Mr. White can figure as he likes. But the railroad employee must come down from his lofty perch.

ENTIRE FORCE ON MAN HUNT

Capture of Driver of Death Car Demanded by Chief.

Seeks Killers of Children Who Flew from Scene.

Orders All Autos Scanned for Marks of Blood.

"Every officer of this department is directed to use his utmost efforts to arrest the man and woman who at about 1 o'clock Tuesday night, at the intersection of North Main and Leley streets, or in front of 1418 North Spring street, ran over and killed Alberto Alvarado, aged 11, and fatally injured his younger brother, Juan Alvarado, aged 6. The woman who committed this crime fled from the scene of the tragedy. All officers are directed to make every effort to arrest the two persons who were in the speeding death car."

With a dozen police detectives, headed by Detective Sergeant Cline and Chief running down all possible leads to the occupants of the car, Chief Pendleton caused the above notice to be published in the Official Police Bulletin yesterday afternoon, and also announced that any person capturing the driver of the car would be given a special reward.

WITNESSES DISAGREE. Although Detective Cline and Chief Pendleton down all possible leads to the occupants of the car, Chief Pendleton caused the above notice to be published in the Official Police Bulletin yesterday afternoon, and also announced that any person capturing the driver of the car would be given a special reward.

Q: What is the length of the second pendulum for Paris? A: The Naval Observatory states that the length of the second pendulum at Paris is 99.39 centimeters or 39.13 inches.

PLAN FRUIT SHIPPING BY TWO BODIES.

Western Growers, Meeting in Seattle, Act to Organize Water Transportation.

Water shipments of perishable fruit products of the Pacific Coast will be centralized under two bureaus in the future.

This word was received yesterday by officials of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange from C. B. Whitcomb, who is representing California growers at the meeting of the all-western water transportation committee, which opened in the Seattle Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Growers from Oregon, Washington, and California, with an investment of $200,000,000, whose shipments total 100,000 cars annually, are in attendance at the meeting.

The two bureaus which the shippers contemplate establishing will be operated by the producers and will be self-financed. Members of the all-western committee will immediately confer with civic and commercial bodies of western cities, and with representatives of the United States and Canadian governments, to enlist aid in procuring adequate refrigeration facilities at the various coast harbors.

The northern water shipping bureau, it is thought, will be established at Seattle, and it is believed that the southern station will be at Los Angeles Harbor.

The committee decided at yesterday's meeting to co-operate with the producers in routing shipments to the twenty-four leading ports of the country.

Speakers, who have investigated the situation, declare that more than $1,000,000 persons reside within trucking distance of these ports. It was said that one-half of the population of the United States could be reached by short inland rail hauls from the points of debarkation.

Seventy-five per cent of the products of the West are grown within 200 miles of a port, it was stated. The steamship companies declared that they are ready to submit definite rates and equip ships with refrigeration as soon as growers assure 9000 cars for shipment.

K. OF C. THANKS LOCAL THEATER MAN FOR AID.

Ed Grauman, who directed and supervised the Knights of Columbus Big Brother Entertainment at the Philharmonic Auditorium last April 15, was presented resolutions of thanks by the local commandery of the organization at a meeting Tuesday night. D. Joseph Coyne, State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus; Benno M. Brink, Grand Knight; and A. A. Normandin, head of the Big Brothers' League, presided. Mr. Grauman's work. More than 600 members of the commandery were present.

PROMISES JAIL FOR SPEEDERS.

County Road Ordinances to be Enforced; Fines for Other Offenses.

It is going to be hard on speeders and other violators of county traffic ordinances, according to an announcement yesterday by Justice Baird, who is in charge of speeders' court. He stated that every automobile driver who burns up a country road at fifty miles or more an hour will have ten days in the County Jail.

"Excessive speed over road intersections where there is a speed limit of fifteen miles an hour will have to stop," said the court. "Persons guilty of this offense will be given a stiff fine. Automobileists who drive between an approaching and a following car without the required 300 feet clearance will be heavily fined."

on the front seat with the driver and others stated that he was alone. When the two boys were struck Juan was riding on a Kiddie Kar which the other child was pushing. Alberto was killed instantly and his brother died in the Receiving Hospital yesterday.

MAY HAVE BLOOD ON IT. The meager description of the "death car" as published in the Police Bulletin, is as follows: Medium size touring model, looks like a Paige, is either new or newly painted, may have blood on it. Had top up, spare tire on rear, was dark colored machine. Occupants: Man, wore Panama hat crushed in on top; woman, about 30 years of age, heavy set, wore white clothes.

Any officer who can obtain any additional description of these people is ordered to take it immediately to the commander of the detective bureau.

The chief puts it up squarely to all members of the department to capture the criminals who killed one child and so injured another that he died a short time later and who then fled without stopping to give assistance. He says all automobiles must be scanned closely for blood marks, and every garage keeper or manager of a parking place must be requested to aid in the search.

ASSERTED LEADER IN L.W.W. TAKES STAND.

Jamea Price, said by the police and District Attorney's investigators to be one of the leaders in an L.W.W. movement to fight the criminal syndicalism law in this State, yesterday took the stand in his own behalf in Judge William's court where he is on trial on that charge. He gave his idea of L.W.W. doctrine, as he explained it by Harold G. Mulke of Chicago, and is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist. Atty. McCarty and Turner.

Be Confined to Bay City.F. W. Berkshire, supervising immigration inspector in the Mexican border district, with headquarters at Tucson, who has been in the city for a week conferring with the city and municipal authorities in regard to the erection by the city of a passenger and immigration station at the port, is sure to come back to Los Angeles by reason of the importance of this city as a port entry, will leave for home today.He declared himself yesterday entirely satisfied as to the success of the project.The building proposed by the harbor authorities will be 100 by 65 feet ground area and fitted to take care both passengers and immigrants.The estimated cost of the structure amounts to $75,000, and the money for construction is to be furnished by the municipality.Speaking of the situation here, Inspector Berkshire said there was no doubt that the feasibility of the project from any point of view.The erection of the structure he stated, will call the attention of the world to the fact that Los Angeles has proper facilities for the handling of all classes of public travel and the plan will have the co-operation of the national immigration authorities.He said the inspector, "the project is as successful as a project can be by anything more common than the money to be furnished by the municipality, but the present argument is ample to prove the feasibility of the view of the immigration authorities of the city of Los Angeles, who are of the opinion that there is no good reason why this city should not be an important port of entry as San Francisco."There is a large stream of travel going north from the Panama and South American countries and the structure here will avoid the trip later southward from San Francisco. There are hundreds of passengers enroute to the Orient who are compelled to go to San Francisco to take ships for China, Japan and other countries. Why should they not get off at Los Angeles Harbor?

JUNE'S GRIP ON BRIDES WEAVERSSixty-seven Licenses Issued,
Compared to One Hundred and Four Last Year.Sixty-seven was the total number of marriage licenses issued to the love god's victims yesterday, June 1.To Jack J. Cryan, 24, and Glenna P. Rudy, 22, goes the distinction of obtaining the first marriage license in June this year. Both are residents of Los Angeles.The fact that last year's record of 104 licenses issued June 1 was not equaled is ably explained by Miss Emma Higgins, official "cupid," who says that then the first of the month was the first business day following the holiday, while this year an extra day intervened. To even matters she is willing to count Tuesday's seventy-seven licenses as the first of the month.The fact that last year's

BREAKFAST IS BIG MEAL NOW

Popular Letter Carrier Says His Appetite Is Fine. Feels Like New and Work No Trouble. Gives Tanlac Credit For His Recovery.

"Tanlac has built me up ten pounds in weight and got me to feeling better than I have in years," said J. W. Compton, a letter carrier, residing at 5585 Compton avenue, Los Angeles.

"For four years I was completely out of condition, not to say sick, but felt tired all the time, had no appetite or 'pep,' and was so weak many days I could hardly do my work for months and months I never ate a mouthful of breakfast, and would go to work feeling so tired I could hardly get along.

"I took medicine until I was discouraged, for nothing helped me. Not long back I got to reading about Tanlac, and got a bottle. Well, I soon began to eat and sleep better, and so I kept taking it, until now I feel fine and am on the job feeling so well I don't have a bit of trouble in getting through. Tanlac proved to be just the thing for me, and I feel sure it will help anyone feeling something to build them up."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles by The Owl Drug Company and leading druggists.

OPEN SHOP IS BUSINESS AID.

Eastern Broker Says System Makes Us Prosper.

Candidates for School Board in Joint Debate.

Undertakers Abandon Plans; Seek New Location.

PASADENA, June 1.—Coming to Southern California impresses the visitor with the excellent business conditions indicated here and the amount of building operations going on, in marked contrast to more unfavorable conditions in the East and Middle West, remarked Frank G. Logan, founder of the business house of Logan & Bryan, upon his arrival here today from his home in Chicago.

"Business seems prosperous here," said Mr. Logan, "while in other parts of the country there is much improvement in the situation to be desired. New building is in progress everywhere out here. In Chicago, New York and other eastern cities building is virtually at a standstill. Doubtless your favorable conditions out here, particularly in building, is due to a better labor situation than in the East. I understand the open shop prevails to a greater extent in Southern California, and there are not so many strikes, lock-outs and the like.

"Here in Pasadena and in Los Angeles it is hard to realize that in the East there is such slackness in business. However, I look for an improvement in the East and Middle West by fall. America is essentially an agricultural country, and if the crops are good the farmers will have money and the business will get better whether industry gets all the way back to normal or not. Moreover, everyone has confidence in President Harding and feels sure that under his administration there will be a gradual betterment of conditions everywhere."

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

The School Betterment League has accepted the challenge of the Better Government League for a debate between their respective candidates for the Board of Education. The debate will be held tomorrow night at the John Muir school. The school election will be on Friday. Each league has three nominees for the three places on the board.

FUNERAL PARLOR DROPPED.

Peace reigns once more in the vicinity of Madison avenue and Herkimer street, a staid residential section for Turner & Stevens undertakers, have given up their plans to erect on that corner a funeral chapel and undertaking parlors. The decision was announced following a conference of the firm and the committee of property owners, which had protested the project before the municipal board of directors. The undertaking firm will erect its plant on some other site, not yet announced.

EXPLODING MOLD WRECKS BUILDING.

PORTERVILLE, June 1.—Arthur W. Clark, one of the proprietors of Lalanne Volcanizing Works, in the downtown district in this city, had a narrow escape this morning, when one of the treated motive which he was just about to use, exploded, smashing to bits a big plate-glass window, scattering plaster, breaking furniture and distorting things generally.

The loss is estimated at $800, for which there was no insurance. No one was in the direct path of the explosion and no one was injured.

BAD CHECK PASSER TO SERVE SENTENCE.

SANTA MONICA, June 1.—E. A. Cook, alias E. A. Rogers, alias E. A. Howard, arrested by Officer Al Young on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses by issuing bad checks was sentenced to six months in the County Jail by Judge M. I. King this morning.

Katherine Rogers and Mary Rockford, who were taken into custody at a local dance hall on suspicion of being connected with the case, were booked for investigation and later released after the Rogers girl had given information as to the whereabouts of Cook. After a wait of three hours at the Russell Hotel on North Broadway, Los Angeles, Officer Young apprehended Cook, who had obtained $25 from Walter E. Gust and $20 from Roy Spencer, both Ocean Park business men.

IN SANTA ANA JAIL.

Printer Fails to Pay Small Fine; Two Women Suspect.

SANTA ANA, June 1.—E. H. Wallace, a printer of Los Angeles, was sent to jail for three days today by Justice John B. Cox for inability to pay a $3 fine imposed for cutting corners.

When he was informed that his fine was $3, he stated that he didn't have it, and that the present prospects of his ever having $3 looked very dim, and that he would agree to serve time in jail in payment for the fine.

FOR SHOPLIFTING.

Emma and Antonia Magana are being held in the County Jail here today, pending their trial on a charge of shoplifting. They are alleged to have taken dry goods valued at $50 from three different department stores here.

"LADY COP" ON DUTY AT BEACH.

POLICEWOMAN TO PAROL ALL ESTABLISHMENTS IN MERRY-MAKING ZONE.

LONG BEACH, June 1.—Chief of Police Ben McLendon announced plans today for a women's division of police, simultaneously with Commissioner Peak's appointment of Mrs. W. F. Straw as policewoman.

With supervision of conduct on the beach, in the amusement zone, in public dance halls, and moving picture theaters as her function, the new policewoman went on duty this afternoon. For the remainder of the present administration, she will carry on her work in co-operation with Mrs. Agnes Sullivan, probation officer, and Miss Laura Fleming matron but Chief McLendon hopes a complete separation of women's from men's work in the department will take place after July 1.

The Women's Police Bureau should consist at the beginning, of a sergeant and four officers, all women, the Chief said. Women feel out of place and cannot do their best work when they are mixed up with those of the male officers, McLendon declared. While Mrs. Straw is a regularly sworn officer with authority to make arrests, her duties primarily are to counsel young people, when indiscreet, and to warn persons at amusement places when their conduct is indecorous.

REDLANDS RESIDENT DIES AT LONG BEACH.

REDLANDS, June 1.—John W. Forker, for twenty-eight years a resident of the city, committed suicide after the business district was started, is dead at his home in Long Beach, he having lived there for the last three years. He died from injuries received in an automobile accident while he was on his way to Redlands for a visit. That was five weeks ago and since then he has been confined to his bed most of the time.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Josephine Forker, and five daughters. They are Mrs. Frank Parrish of Oak Glen, Mrs. D. J. Richards of Fullerton, Mrs. Edith Barrett of Long Beach, Mrs. J. B. Curtis of Long Beach. There also is a son, Raymond Forker.

ESCONDIDO COMMENCEMENT.

ESCONDIDO, June 1.—The Escondido High School, with a total enrollment of 197—the largest in the history of the school—is sending out a graduating class of twenty-five members.

The commencement exercises will be held at the Kinema Theater, Friday evening, the address of the occasion being by Frank W. Dell of Whittier. The diploma will be presented by Rev. George W. Dunlap, president of the Board of Education. The Glee Club of the school will sing. The words and the music of the class song by Miss Mildred Fox, a member of the senior class.

MONEY DISAPPEARS.

SANTA MONICA, June 1.—Joseph Rice of 1642 Nineteenth street is today mourning the loss of $240 which he claims disappeared from his pocket while he was en route from Ocean Park to his home on one of the local buses last evening. Rice accuses no one as the buses are crowded at that time of day and several had the opportunity to pick his pocket without being

SMALL FIRE LOSS.

Pomona Department Does Good Work; Triple Funeral.

POMONA, June 1.—Prompt work on the part of the fire department prevented what promised to be a disastrous fire shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. L. L. Ferris, of the New York Rooms, was heading some coffee on an oil stove and left the room for a moment. When she returned the stove had ignited a window curtain and was burning briskly. The fire department extinguished the flames with chemicals. The loss was nominal.

TRIPLE FUNERAL.

Members of Charles P. Rowe Post No. 30, American Legion, will have charge of a triple funeral on Sunday afternoon. Services will be held for three Pomona boys who gave their lives in the service of their country. The following will be buried: Corporal Glenn Baird and Private Robert Valdez, who died in France, and whose bodies have just been returned, and Thomas Whiteside, storekeeper, second-class, United States Navy, who died in New York last Sunday night. Burial L. Pitts, State commander, will deliver the funeral address.

REDUCE ASSESSMENTS.

SANTA MONICA, June 1.—Several more days will be required by the city officials to complete the revision of the assessment roll in the matter of the opening and widening of Main street. The gigantic task of figuring the assessment on 16,000 pieces of property was too much to complete in one week with a holiday intervening. The revision, the commissioners say will reduce the entire cost of the proceeding about $55,000.

TWO KIDNAPED GIRLS RESCUED.

Pair Found After Being Held Captive in Mexico.

Mexicali Policeman Arrested on Abduction Charge.

Rancher is Shot as the Young Women Are Stolen.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CALEXICO, June 1.—Footnote and weary, and fearing that they might at any time be shot down by two Mexicans who kidnaped them last Friday and held them prisoners on a ranch fifteen miles beyond the boundary line for two days, Cruz and Jesus Moreno, pretty Mexican girls, aged 16 and 14 years, respectively, have been found by Constable Frank Crane and returned to the American side of the line, where Pablo Prieto, a Mexicali policeman, has been arrested by the Lower California officials on a charge of being one of the men who kidnaped the girls after shooting M. Sheraf, a Hindu rancher, near Mt. Signal.

After they had been kidnaped, the girls say, Prieto beat the elder one over the head and about the body with his pistol when she tried to escape. They were forced by their abductors to walk about twelve miles through the heat and dust, the girls told local officers, and were delivered to a Mexican farmer and his wife, who were threatened with death if they permitted the girls to escape. The kidnapers also threatened the girls with death if they attempted to run away.

While the men were gone the girls explained the situation to their jailers, who hid them in two trunks, and when Prieto and his companion returned told them that the girls had escaped. Vowing vengeance upon the girls, the kidnapers left, and the girls were allowed to return to the American side of the line, where the officer found them and brought them back here.

The kidnaping took place at the home of Diwan Singh, a Hindu farmer, to whom the elder of the girls was married about two weeks ago in San Diego after they had asked him to help them escape from their parents, who, they said, had mistreated them. Diwan Singh sheltered them for two days and then proposed marriage to the elder girl and was accepted.

When the abductors appeared at his house and carried off his wife and her sister, Diwan Singh, was in the field and did not suspect that anything was wrong until he heard the shot and rushed to the house to find Sheraf, his friend and neighbor, lying seriously wounded in the doorway and his wife and sister-in-law gone.

Helped to Live by Community Workers.

Family Father Cannot Support on $72 a Month.

Mary Johnson, aged 8, feeding Thomas, 1. Behind the baby carriage is Raymond, 6, with Gladys, 3, and Irene, 5½, standing at his left. Lester, 7, is seated, with Harold, 11, standing behind him.

SEVEN TO FEED AND CLOTHE ON PITTANCE.

Seven little children to feed and clothe, and a salary of $72 a month to cover all expenses!

It can't be done, of course, and particularly when the husband and father has to meet a payment of $30 on his home each month.

It is into such homes as these that the Council of Community Service, of which Mrs. J. T. Anderson is president, carries its bounty in the way of nourishing milk and other needed supplies.

There are seven little boys and girls in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson, and in a home nearly barren of furniture they live at 119 Colina street.

Thomas is the baby. He is a year old. Then there comes Gladys, a pretty brown-eyed girl, aged 3 years. Raymond is next. He is 4 years old. Lester is 7. Until a few months ago he was a healthy little chap, but the cold, penetrating dampness of the hollow where the family lives, made him its victim, and today he is practically helpless from rheumatism. Then in point of age comes Mary, who is 8, and Irene, the mother's chief assistant, who says she is 2. Last, but first of the little family group, is Harold, who is 11.

The Council of Community Service is making its third annual call upon the men and women of Los Angeles for contributions to its fund, which covers milk and maintenance, and vacation homes for the undernourished children.

Checks should be made payable to the milk and maintenance fund, John S. Myers, treasurer, and mailed in care of the Council of Community Service, 218 Coulter Building.

Sinned to Save Her Own Mother, Girl Testifies.

In a remarkable statement yesterday in Justice Follett's court, Marjorie E. Brown, aged 17, testified that because of her dislike for Percy M. Hart, aged 40, and to prevent her mother from marrying him, she had permitted him to commit a statutory offense with which he is charged.

"I detest the man, and I was afraid my mother would marry him," the girl stated, "and that is why I permitted such things to take place. I thought if I told my mother what happened she would have nothing to do with him."

Mrs. Mary L. Miller, the girl's mother, was a witness against Hart. In making his plea to the court, H. M. Dalton stated that the girl had performed the supreme sacrifice in order to prevent her mother from marrying Hart. The defendant was held to answer under a special commitment, and was released on his own recognizance pending trial in Superior Court. Dep. Dist. Atty. Hill prosecuted the case.

Booze, Perfume, Cosmetic Loot of Key Workers.

Whisky, perfumes and cosmetics made up the loot secured by a gang of burglars who, early yesterday morning, robbed three drug stores in the city. In each case passkeys were used by the thieves and the loot carried away in automobiles.

The Reidz Drug Company at Pico and Flower streets was the first to discover the loss and reported the matter to the police. The Western Pharmacy at 5501 Hollywood Boulevard and the Coast drug store at Eleventh street and Western avenue are the other two establishments raided.

TELLS OF EXPLOSIVE CACHE.
Testimony regarding the discovery of a bottle of nitroglycerine in the apartment of George Maynard was given yesterday in Justice Follett's court at Eleventh street and Western avenue on a charge of having hidden explosives in his possession. Dep. Dist. Atty. Hill is prosecuting the case. The hearing was continued until today.

The June Sale of Lingerie

Lower Prices, Lovelier Garments, Daintier Colors, Wider Variety Than Has Been Possible for Years

Crepe de Chine Envelope Chemise, 2.45
Perhaps the most surprising value of the sale—so comprehensive is the style assortment—so beautiful the quality and withal so very low the price.

Really beautiful creations, be-laced and be-ribboned just as one would dream they should be.

Dainty Nainsook Envelope Chemise, 95c
What a beautiful quality, what dainty trimming of lace and embroidery for less than one dollar. Surely an "old-fashioned" value.

Georgette Envelope Chemise, 2.95
All these lovely colors—flesh, light blue, orchid, Nile, maize, peach and gray. For trousseaux, hope chests and wear with summer frocks.

Silk Petticoats, 6.95
Whether it be satin or crepe de chine one prefers, both are here, with flounces lace trimmed. Flesh and white.

Satin Skirts, 4.95
Tub satin, petticoats that are quite like new after many tubbings. A bit plainer styles, trimmed with Calais lace. Also crepe de chine in flesh and white. Both shadowproof.

Satin Camisoles 1.95
Not ordinary 1.95 camisoles, by any manner of means—beautiful quality, with daintiest of lace and georgette trimming.

Crepe Bloomers 95c
The practical, popular Windsor crepe, cut full, reinforced, ruffle-trimmed with even a touch of hand embroidery.

Philippine Gowns, Envelope Chemise, 2.65
There is something about Philippine that is most appealing—and certainly so at this price. The embroidery is beautifully done and elaborate for such a price as this.

Georgette Step-Ins, 1.95
Each pair beautifully lace trimmed and in the lovely soft shades so in demand.

Crepe de Chine Step-Ins, 1.95
A very rich quality crepe de chine, with just the proper touch of lace for trimming.

Georgette Night Gowns, 4.95
Now the georgette set is complete—for in this group there are all the pretty soft shades—flesh, orchid, light blue Nile, maize, apricot and gray.

Slip-Over Nainsook Gowns, 95c
For as small a sum as this the daintiest of nainsook gowns may be found at Hamburger's. Lace and embroidery trimmed—also muslin gowns, 95c.

These Serviceable Chests Made of Tennessee Red Cedar, 13.75

Every June it seems that the faithful cedar chest comes into its own once again—for there are the trousseau linens that June brides always pack away in them—and the furs and woollens that must be protected from moths and dust. That is why Hamburger's made so strenuous an effort to get this carload at the new low prices.

At 13.75—a genuine red cedar chest, 32 inches long, 16 inches wide and 11 inches deep, made of heavy lumber; dust and moth proof features. Underpriced.

At 16.95—Tennessee red cedar chest, 40x16½x11, patented inside cover and corner strip. Special at this price.

At 17.95—a larger red cedar chest, 42x16½x11—perfect in every detail. Moderately priced.

At 18.95—cedar chest, finished with copper bands, size 42x16½x11—built strongly and underpriced.

Many other styles and higher priced chests—a complete display
